Education Program Plan for Foreign and Classical Languages

Students may seek certification in the following languages: French, German, Greek, Italian, Latin, Russian, or Spanish. A total of 36 points is required. Acceptable courses carry the language department prefix for the language in which certification is sought. This includes language and literature courses. We accept culture and civilization courses when they are offered within the language department as part of a concentration in the language. History courses and literature in translation courses are not acceptable.
