Did you attend Barnard's "Summer in New York" pre-college program? Yes No

Applicants who wish to take a gap year and defer their enrollment to Fall 2012: If you plan to defer your enrollment, please indicate your intention by answering the appropriate question on the Common Application. Admitted students must obtain official permission by writing to the Dean of Admissions to explain the reasons for the deferral request. Deferral requests must be received by February 1 for students admitted Early Decision and by April 25 for students admitted Regular Decision.

If your parent(s) or other relatives, including siblings, have attended or are attending Barnard College, please list them, giving their full name (including maiden name, if applicable), their relationship to you, and their Barnard College class (if known).

Please respond to each of the following questions. It is crucial that you address all aspects of each question. Please limit your response to a well-developed paragraph. If needed, you may attach separate sheets, clearly identifying your name, high school, and date of birth or Social Security number on each page.

A. How were you first made aware of Barnard College? What intrigues you about Barnard's approach to the liberal arts and sciences?

B. Pick one woman in history or fiction to converse with for an hour and explain your choice. What would you talk about?

C. Alumna and writer Anna Quindlen says that she “majored in unafraid” at Barnard. What does that mean to you?

D. Community—educational, geographic, religious, political, ethnic, or other—can define an individual's experience and influence her journey. How has your community, as you identify it, shaped your perspective?

E. Applicants for the HEOP Scholars Program: Why are you interested in the Arthur O. Eve Higher Education Opportunity Program? What do you hope to achieve by participating in this program? (HEOP Scholars must be New York State residents and meet specific academic and financial eligibility guidelines. Please see the Barnard College HEOP website at www.barnard.edu/admiss/HEOP/ to see if you qualify and to learn more about program support services.)
