WELCOME TO BARNARD’S CLASS OF 2017!

We hope you will join us for one of the following

Summer Advising Sessions

You’ll soon be receiving your copy of the Academic Guide to Your First Year at Barnard College 2013-2014, which provides you with materials you will need to start planning your course schedule for the fall semester. All entering Barnard students are required to submit course preference information online between July 1 and July 10. The First-Year Class Dean and her staff will then spend the rest of the summer preparing a preliminary fall program for each entering student. You may already be feeling nervous about all of these academic choices, but don’t worry! We begin the process now so that you can form a plan in the summer and then have time to consider that plan when you arrive in the fall, when you’ll have plenty of opportunity to ask questions and learn more information before finalizing your course schedule.

In June, Lisa Hollibaugh, the First-Year Class Dean, will be holding advising sessions in several cities in order to meet new students and answer their questions about academics at Barnard, and we hope that you’ll make every effort to attend if you can. At each meeting the Dean will go over the information contained in the Guide in more detail and then discuss some of the considerations for choosing your fall courses, as well as the process for submitting your course preferences online. These advising sessions will also give you the opportunity to meet other new Barnard students from your area, so that there will be familiar faces when you arrive on campus at the end of August. (If you live too far away from these cities to attend, rest assured that we’ll be providing similar advising online as well.)

Please RSVP for an advising session online at the following site: http://tinyurl.com/amwm45x. If you cannot access the online RSVP form, please call the Office of the Dean of Studies at (212) 854-2024. And when you come to the session, be sure to bring your copy of the Academic Guide to Your First Year at Barnard College 2013-2014 for reference. We hope to see you soon!
