Acknowledgement of Barnard Babysitting Rules

I acknowledge that I have reviewed and agree to the official rules of Barnard Babysitting, outlined below.

- Babysitters must fulfill any job they have accepted, and email the client directly if they need to cancel, and are expected to give 24 hours of notice to the client for jobs they cannot fulfill.
- Babysitting is prohibited in all Barnard Residence Halls.
- Babysitters are not allowed to bring other students or friends to babysit.
- Babysitters are not expected to do housework beyond cleaning up after themselves.
- Clients must pay for cab fare home from their home to the Barnard Campus if the babysitting job ends after 9:00 p.m.
- Clients should provide food or money for food to sitters during meal times. Be prepared to discuss food restrictions with clients.
- The minimum babysitting wage is $15.00 per hour. The average babysitting wage is $15.00 to $20.00 per hour. Clients are welcome to pay above the average.
- International students interested in participating in Barnard Babysitting must consult with Dean Wendy Garay in International Student Services before they work.
