BARNARD COLLEGE COMMUNITY SERVICE FAIR—OCTOBER 6, 2011
Participating Community Organizations (In Alphabetical Order)

All Stars Project (www.allstars.org)
- The All Stars Project, Inc. creates outside of school, educational and performing arts activities for thousands of poor and minority young people.
- Recruiting volunteers to assist with community talent shows, to work in the theatre and special events, staff performances in on-site theatres, etc.

Behind the Book (www.behindthebook.org)
- Behind the Book brings published authors into high-need NYC public school classrooms.
- In need of in-classroom volunteers to help with writing and/or art projects and to help manage and run special events, develop website, perform office duties and extend community outreach.

Bideawee (www.bideawee.org)
- Bideawee’s mission is to promote and support safe, loving, long-term relationships between people and companion animals.
- Outreach Volunteers needed to help promote Bideawee’s services by walking a dog through local neighborhoods and events while distributing Bideawee information.

The Boys’ Club of New York (www.bcny.org)
- The Boys’ Club of New York develops programs and services to ensure that the organization can effectively meet the emerging needs of New York City’s boys.
- Tutors are needed for the Homework Help Program and Mentors or Group Club Leaders are needed to serve as coaches. The Physical department also has the need for individuals with sports background to volunteer to assist members in their different sporting endeavors. Volunteers can also work with specialty programs such as Poetry, Dancing, Robotics, and Fitness with the members.

Cathedral Community Cares (www.stjohndivine.org/social_ccc.html)
- Operated from the Cathedral Church of St. John the Divine, Cathedral Community Cares’ mission is to combat and alleviate poverty through preventive poverty services, education and advocacy—specifically targeting the issues of health and hunger.
- Volunteers are needed for the Clothing Closet Program, the Sunday Soup Kitchen, and with outreach.

Chemo Comfort (www.chemocomfort.org)
- Chemo Comfort is dedicated to improving the quality of life of cancer patients undergoing chemotherapy.
- Volunteers sought for various committees and to complete administrative work. Chemo Comfort also hosts monthly kit-making sessions during which volunteers assemble Chemo Comfort kits for partner organizations.

City Year (www.cityyear.org)
- City Year recruits young people to serve as tutors, mentors and role models to help children stay in school and on track, and transform schools and communities.
- Recruiting volunteers for 10-month Corps program.

Citymeals-on-Wheels (www.citymeals.org)
- Citymeals provides homebound seniors with food and human company.
- Volunteers are needed for the Friendly Visiting, Meal Delivery, Senior Chat, and Senior Script programs.

Community Impact at Columbia University (www.communityimpactatcu.org/ci)
- Community Impact (CI) is a nonprofit organization located at Columbia University. CI consists of 27 community service programs, which provides food, clothing, shelter, education, job training, and companionship for residents in the university’s surrounding communities.
- Representatives from CI will be recruiting for the organization’s various student-led service programs.

Sign up for the Civic Engagement Listserv at www.barnard.edu/nyccep to receive weekly newsletters and other information regarding volunteer and civic engagement-related internship and job opportunities!
BARNARD COLLEGE COMMUNITY SERVICE FAIR—OCTOBER 6, 2011
Participating Community Organizations (In Alphabetical Order)

DonorsChoose.org (www.donorschoose.org)
- DonorsChoose.org is an online charity dedicated to helping students in need.
- Volunteers are needed to help sort thank you packages to donors.

East Harlem Tutorial Program (www.ehtp.org)
- The East Harlem Tutorial Program teach reading and math, provide one-to-one tutoring, prepare kids for college, help them get accepted, and build the social skills they will need to succeed.
- Volunteers are needed for homework help and tutoring for students in elementary, middle, and high school, the Film and Writing Program, and the College Mentoring Program.

Figure Skating in Harlem (www.figureskatinginharlem.org)
- Figure Skating in Harlem provides girls ages 6-18 with vital educational and skating opportunities that build self-worth and promote physical well being and academic achievement.
- Volunteers are needed to assist with weekly ice skating classes and to serve as after school tutors.

Free Arts NYC (www.freeartsnyc.org)
- Free Arts provides arts education and mentoring programs to under-served city youth and families.
- Volunteers are needed for Saturday arts festivals and weekly arts-based mentoring groups for youth ages 6-12, and an 8-week collaborative art experience for families.

GlamourGals Foundation (www.glamourgals.org)
- GlamourGals’ mission is to inspire and organize teens to provide ongoing complimentary beauty makeovers and companionship to women living in senior homes.
- Volunteers are needed to assist with special events coordination, creating marketing material, etc.

Groove With Me, Inc. (www.groovewithme.org)
- Groove With Me is a youth development organization that offers free dance classes and performance opportunities.
- Volunteer teachers and assistants are needed for programs during the current academic year.

GrowNYC (www.grownyc.org)
- GrowNYC is a hands-on nonprofit which improves New York City’s quality of life through environmental programs that transform communities block by block and empower all New Yorkers to secure a clean and healthy environment for future generations.
- GrowNYC is looking for volunteers for their recycling and composting programs.

HeadCount (www.headcount.org)
- HeadCount is a nonpartisan, nonprofit organization dedicated to voter registration and inspiring participation in democracy through the power of music.
- HeadCount volunteers attend concerts to register voters, inform fellow music fans about key issues and encourage participation in democracy.

Housing Works (www.housingworks.org)
- Housing Works’ mission is to end the dual crises of homelessness and AIDS through relentless advocacy, the provision of lifesaving services, and entrepreneurial businesses that sustain the organization’s efforts.
- Housing Works is looking for thrift shop and health services volunteers and for volunteers at its donation facility.

Sign up for the Civic Engagement Listserv at www.barnard.edu/nyccep to receive weekly newsletters and other information regarding volunteer and civic engagement-related internship and job opportunities!
International Rescue Committee (www.rescue.org)
- The International Rescue Committee (IRC) responds to the world’s worst humanitarian crises and helps people to survive and rebuild their lives. The IRC offers lifesaving care and life-changing assistance to refugees forced to flee from war or disaster.
- Youth Program Tutors are needed for after school programs on Tuesdays and Wednesdays in Queens and Brooklyn and for a Saturday tutoring program in Manhattan. Office internships are also available.

JASA (www.jasa.org)
- JASA’s mission is to sustain and enrich the lives of the aging in the New York metropolitan area so that they can remain in the community with dignity and autonomy.
- JASA uses volunteers to fill such roles as activity leaders at senior centers, friendly visitors, and clerical aides.

Jumpstart for Young Children (www.jstart.org)
- Jumpstart is a national early education organization that helps children from low-income neighborhood develop the language and literacy skills they need to be successful in school, setting them on a path to close the achievement gap before it is too late.
- Teams of volunteers are placed in preschools in low-income neighborhoods in Harlem and Morningside Heights, where they implement a supplemental early language and literacy curriculum twice weekly.

Lenox Hill Neighborhood House (www.lenoxhill.org)
- Lenox Hill Neighborhood House is a 117-year-old settlement house that provides an extensive array of effective and integrated human services—social, educational, legal, health, housing, mental health, nutritional and fitness—on the East Side of Manhattan.
- Volunteers are needed to: run group activities for seniors with Alzheimer’s; lead nutrition and healthy cooking workshops for children, homeless women and formerly homeless adults; staff the information desk at the Senior Center; run arts and crafts workshops for residents in the shelter for homeless women; and work on horticulture projects on the rooftop garden.

LSA Family Health Service (www.littlesistersfamily.org)
- The LSA Family Health Service works with the people of East Harlem to address the physical, emotional, educational, and spiritual dimensions of family health.
- After school tutors are needed for the Tutoring Program. Group opportunities also available for food drives and the Operation Santa program.

Mentoring USA (www.mentoringusa.org)
- Mentoring USA’s mission is to create positive and supportive mentor relationships for youth ages 7-21, through a structured site-based model.
- Volunteer Mentors are needed to provide one-on-one mentoring.

Metropolitan Council on Jewish Poverty (www.metcouncil.org)
- Met Council is the voice of the Jewish poor and fights poverty through comprehensive social services.
- Volunteers are needed for the Soup Kitchen, the Food Pantry, the Senior Lunch Program, the Youth Enrichment Program, the Homework Helpers Program, and to work with Senior Nutrition Workshops and Senior Fitness Classes.

National September 11 Memorial & Museum (www.911memorial.org)
- The 9/11 Memorial serves to remember and honor the thousands of innocent men, women, and children murdered by terrorists in the horrific attacks of February 26, 1993 and September 11, 2001. The Museum will honor the nearly 3,000 victims of these attacks and all those who risked their lives to save others.
- The 9/11 Memorial is seeking dedicated volunteers to support the Visitor Services staff.

Sign up for the Civic Engagement Listserv at www.barnard.edu/nyccep to receive weekly newsletters and other information regarding volunteer and civic engagement-related internship and job opportunities!
BARNARD COLLEGE COMMUNITY SERVICE FAIR—OCTOBER 6, 2011
Participating Community Organizations (In Alphabetical Order)

New York Cares (www.newyorkcares.org)
• New York Cares is the city’s largest volunteer organization, running volunteer programs for 1,200 nonprofits, city agencies and public schools.
• New York Cares acts as a clearinghouse for hundreds of volunteer opportunities around New York City.

• The NYC Compost Project was created by the NYC Department of Sanitation in 1993 to provide compost education and outreach to NYC residents, nonprofit organizations, and businesses.
• The NYC Compost Project works with volunteers on a regular basis and offers several environmental volunteer opportunities.

Special Olympics New York (www.specialolympicsny.org)
• Special Olympics New York provides year-round sports training and athletic competition in a variety of Olympic-style sports for all children and adults with intellectual disabilities.
• Volunteers are needed for competitions, the Polar Plunge Event, and to serve as coaches or as planning committee members.

StreetSquash (www.streetsquash.org)
• StreetSquash is a Harlem-based urban youth enrichment program that combines academic tutoring, squash instruction, college preparation, community service and mentoring.
• Volunteers can be tutors, mentors, and/or squash coaches.

Transportation Alternatives (www.transalt.org)
• Transportation Alternatives’ mission is to reclaim New York City’s street from the automobile, and to advocate for bicycling, walking and public transit as the best transportation alternatives.
• Volunteer positions range from assistance with specific campaigns (bike, transit, and safety) doing surveying, outreach, or advocacy, to helping in the office with data entry and general tasks.

The Trevor Project (www.thetrevorproject.org)
• The Trevor Project’s mission is to promote the acceptance of lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender and questioning (LGBTQ) youth, and to aid in crisis and suicide prevention among that group.
• Volunteers serve as Trevor Lifeline Counselors, Lifeguard Workshop Facilitators, TrevorChat Counselors, Dear Trevor Authors, TrevorSpace Administrators, and help with outreach and at special events.

We Are New York (www.nyc.gov/html/weareny)
• The We Are New York Community Project brings together community organizations and volunteers to offer free English conversation groups for adult immigrants in neighborhoods around New York City.
• Language Leaders are needed to lead conversation groups around New York City.

Yorkville Common Pantry (www.ycp.org)
• The Yorkville Common Pantry (YCP) is dedicated to reducing hunger while promoting dignity and self-sufficiency. YCP champions the cause of the hungry through food pantry and meal distribution programs, nutrition education, basic hygiene services, homeless support, and related services.
• Volunteers are needed for the Project Dignity Meal Program and the Pantry Program.

Sign up for the Civic Engagement Listserv at www.barnard.edu/nyccep to receive weekly newsletters and other information regarding volunteer and civic engagement-related internship and job opportunities!