

FOUNDATIONS

First-Year Experience

The First-Year Experience includes 2 semesters of seminar class: First-Year Writing and First-Year Seminar

First-year students are also required to take 1 course in Physical Education

Distributional Requirements

2 courses in:

Languages
Arts & Humanities
Social Science
Sciences

Modes of Thinking

1 course in:

Thinking Quantitatively & Empirically
Thinking Technologically & Digitally
Thinking through Global Inquiry
Thinking Locally-New York City
Thinking about Social Difference
Thinking with Historical Perspective

Major

Varies by program:
generally 10-14 courses

Electives

Number of courses will vary and may include a minor or prerequisites for professional school

A single course may count for 1 requirement in 2 different categories

2 Courses, 1 with a Laboratory

Senior Experience

Senior projects or theses represent the culmination of academic work in the major

122 Credits, approximately 40 courses, needed to fulfill Barnard Degree Requirements