“COLLEGE ON THE HILLTOP”

There's a college on a hilltop
That's very dear to me,
And a certain group of students
With ties of comrad'rie.
So we'll sing to dear old Barnard,
And loyal be and true,
As we show to coming classes
How we love the white and blue.

When the day has come for parting
And college days are o'er,
There will always be a fondness
For the good old days of yore.
And we'll sing to dear old Barnard
As in memory we see
The college on the hilltop
Where our classmates used to be.

— May Appleton Parker, 1904

BARNARD COLLEGE

Since its founding in 1889, Barnard College has maintained its reputation as a distinguished leader in higher education, offering a rigorous liberal arts foundation to young women whose curiosity, drive, and exuberance set them apart. Barnard fosters a diverse intellectual community surrounded by a unique learning environment that provides the best of all worlds: small, intimate classes in a collaborative liberal arts setting dedicated to the advancement of women with the vast resources of Columbia University just steps away — in the heart of vibrant New York City.

On our four-acre Manhattan campus, our world-class faculty of teacher-scholars educates over 3,200 inspired and intrepid undergraduate women who have gone on to lead in their respective fields in the arts, business, government, and science.

One hundred and thirty-six years ago, Barnard was the first college in New York City — and one of the few in the world — where women could receive the same liberal arts education available to men. Today, Barnard is one of the most selective academic institutions in the United States and remains devoted to empowering extraordinary women. With the unparalleled opportunities offered to our students, the strength of our academic programs, and our ongoing commitment to diversity, we continue to do what we have done from the beginning: uplift Barnard women so they can change the world.
