Post-Award Support for PIs (Victoria)

Post-award services for sponsored research support Barnard faculty and staff by providing the fiscal management of grants and contracts and by complying with regulations concerning the expenditure of funds, reporting, communication with sponsors, and ensuring terms and conditions of sponsored agreements are met.

- I can show faculty members how to run reports in Workday and how to interpret the data on those reports. I can also run reports for faculty as needed, though I am working on sending out quarterly reports.
- I can assist with purchasing and procurement goods and services.
- I collaborate with Finance to answer questions regarding allowable and unallowable costs.
- I can assist with adjusting grant budgets if/as project needs change, and work with Finance to have those changes reflected in Workday.
- I can submit cost transfers (also called expense corrections and accounting adjustments) on a PI's behalf.
- For faculty with grants with subrecipients, I can assist with payment processing of subrecipient invoices and with issuing subaward amendments.
- I can assist with requests for no-cost extensions and other non-fiscal tasks.
- At the end of your research project, I can provide help with reporting and closing out of the award.

- New York City Human Rights Law - Pay Transparency
  - Effective November 1, 2022 under the New York City Human Rights Law, employers advertising jobs in New York City (in person, hybrid, or fully remote) must include a good faith minimum and maximum salary range for every job at the time of the posting.
  - A specific range must be listed and simply can’t indicate the position will pay up to a specific dollar amount.
  - If an employer has no flexibility in the salary they are offering, the minimum and maximum salary may be identical.
  - Job postings, including all postings in Workday and PeopleAdmin, as well as internal bulletin boards, internet advertisements, printed flyers distributed at job fairs, and newspaper advertisements.
  - Employers that fail to comply with the new law can face potential enforcement action by the NYC Human Rights Commission, which can fine employers a maximum of $250,000 per violation.
New York City Human Rights Law - Pay Transparency

Salary does not include other forms of compensation or benefits offered in connection with the advertised job, promotion, or transfer opportunity, such as:
- Health, life, or other employer-provided insurance
- Paid or unpaid time off work, such as paid sick or vacation days, leaves of absence, or sabbaticals
- The availability of or contributions towards retirement or savings funds, such as 401(k) plans or employer funded pension plans
- Severance pay
- Overtime pay
- Other forms of compensation, such as commissions, tips, bonuses, stock, or the value of employer-provided meals or lodging

Salary includes the base annual or hourly wage or rate of pay, regardless of the frequency of payment. For example, it would include an hourly wage of $15 per hour or an annual salary of $50,000 per year.
