

Application for ENGL BC3996:
Special Project in English
(1 point)

The senior project for the theatre concentration is usually written in a dramatic literature course that is combined with ENGL BC3996 Special Project. In rare cases, the senior project may be written in ENGL BC3999 Independent Study.

In rare cases, the Chair of the English Department may permit an English major not concentrating in theatre to take ENGL BC3996 in combination with another course.

Note that if you are writing a senior project in creative writing, you should not use this form. Instead, follow the creative writing special project directions on the English Department website.

The completed application form must be submitted to the English Department Administrative Assistant (Julissa Acosta, jacosta@barnard.edu) by 3:00 pm on the day before the last day of the final registration period for the semester. Check the English Department website for the exact due date of a particular semester.

If an instructor is unable to sign this form digitally, please cc them on your email.
